built houses without permission in Sur: No: 102, having been brought on the takrar list of 1889-90, the Jamabandi Officer fined Bapusab Rs: 8/- & ordered that as there were some more men who were willing to build houses there, the allotment of a small extent of land for a village site should be recommended. Tavakal Sab was not visited with any punishment, as his house was alleged as having existed from even before the Survey Settlement.

Subsequent enquiries disclosed that Bapusab's house stood on Sur: No: 133 and not on Sur: No: 102 and that 11 other applicants wished to build houses on these 2 Numbers. It has also been ascertained subsequently that 2 others besides Bapusab built houses on No: 133 since in anticipation of getting sanction for which they also will be duly fined.

Sur: No: 102 is on one side of and Sur: No: 133 on the other side of the Chikmagalur-Tornamavoo road and houses are proposed to be built in rows on each side of the road.

A total extent of 4 acres & 35 guntas — has been allowed for the village sites at Mile-mane, Hosahallipete, Gadabanahalli and other Dakla villages. It has been reported that there are no vacancies in the village sites in consequence of which most of the ryots have built houses in their Khate lands.

The land now proposed to be allotted for building purposes is about half a mile from
